DIVISION MEMORANDUM

No. 765, s. 2026

CONDUCT OF THE DIVISION FEDERATED SUPREME
SECONDARY LEARNER GOVERNMENT (DFSSLG)
DANCE WELLNESS FOR A CAUSE

TO: Assistant Schools Division Superintendent
Chief Education Supervisors, CID and SGOD
Public Schools District Supervisors
Secondary School Heads
SSLG Advisers
MAPEH Teachers
DFSSLG and SSLG Officers
All Others Concerned

1. In support of the Learner Government Program (LGP) and learner-led initiatives promoting physical and mental wellness, leadership, and youth participation, the Schools Division of Baybay City, through the SGOD-Youth Formation Division (YFD) and the Division Federation of Supreme Secondary Learner Government (DFSSLG), shall conduct the DFSSLG Dance Wellness for a Cause in all public secondary schools.

2. The activity shall promote wellness and generate resources for approved learner government programs, projects, and activities, with the following monthly advocacy focus:

Date	Advocacy Focus	Time
September 27, 2026	Suicide Prevention and Mental Wellness	4:00-5:00 PM
October 17, 2026	Mental Health Awareness and Self-Care	4:00-5:00 PM
Nov 14, 2026	Child Protection, Positive Peer Relationships, and Anti-Bullying	4:00-5:00 PM
December 12, 2026	Gratitude, Volunteerism, and Community Wellness	4:00-5:00 PM

3. Each public secondary school, through its SSLG and under the guidance of the School Head and SSLG Adviser, shall organize the activity in its respective school or other duly authorized venue. Elementary schools are not required to conduct a separate activity; however, teaching and non-teaching personnel from elementary schools may voluntarily participate in a nearby secondary school.

4. School Heads are requested to seek the assistance of willing MAPEH teachers and/or MAPEH Club officers, if any, in facilitating the Dance Wellness sessions. Appropriate warm-up, dance exercises, hydration, cool-down, and safety measures shall be observed.
5. Teaching personnel officially authorized to assist may render service from 3:30 PM to 5:30 PM for preparation, registration, facilitation, and post-activity duties. Eligible Saturday services may be granted Vacation Service Credits (VSCs) subject to existing DepEd policies, prior authorization, documentation, and approval.
6. Participation shall be strictly voluntary. A ₱50.00 registration amount per participant per scheduled activity may be accepted, subject to the approved activity/project proposal and applicable DepEd policies on learner-government fundraising and collections.
7. Registration may be conducted through advance registration and/or on-site registration. The SSLG Treasurer or a duly designated SSLG officer shall receive and record the registration payments under the supervision of the SSLG Adviser and School Head. An official registration list and corresponding record of collections shall be maintained for every activity.
8. All collections shall be turned over and accounted for immediately after the activity. The SSLG Treasurer and Auditor, under the guidance of the SSLG Adviser and School Head, shall ensure proper recording, verification, liquidation, and reporting of all collections and authorized expenses in accordance with existing Learner Government Program guidelines.
9. The SGOD-YFD, in coordination with the DFSSLG, shall coordinate with concerned Sangguniang Kabataan (SK) officials and other community partners for possible assistance in promotion, mobilization, sound system, hydration, safety, venue preparation, and other logistical needs.
10. The activity may be used as a contextualized learning opportunity in MAPEH, particularly Physical Education and Health, when aligned with prescribed competencies. Attendance or payment of the registration amount shall not automatically result in additional academic points or grades.
11. All funds generated shall be properly recorded, accounted for, and used only for duly approved learner government programs, projects, and activities. Accomplishment and financial reports shall be submitted to the SGOD-YFD after every scheduled activity.
12. Immediate dissemination of and compliance with this Memorandum are directed.
